

Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law has greatly reduced the number of unwanted telemarketing calls received at my home. I am strongly against any federal measure that is less restrictive pre-empting the current state law.